

DRR celebrates Annual Day – 7th Jan 2012

The family members of DRR and the staff of DRR celebrated the Annual day on 7th of January 2012. The evening began with festivity and exchange of greetings on occasion of the new year. Many of the talented youngsters presented an array of cultural events with performance of dance, songs, skits etc. A brief report on the achievements of DRR during the year 2011 was presented. On the occasion, DRR Annual Awards were presented by the Project Director to the team for best research papers and to individuals as best researcher, best worker (Technical) and best worker (Administration & accounts). All the staff bringing credit to the organization through their distinguished achievements were felicitated. There was also a “Director’s Special” recognition. The function ended with a dinner hosted by the DRR Staff Recreation Club.

